

Amistad Notables Buried in Grove Street Cemetery

Amistad Captives. Gravestone honoring the six men of the Amistad buried in the Grove Street Cemetery who died in New Haven, September 3–December 31, 1839: Fa, September 3; Tua, September 11; We-lu-wa, September 14; Ka-pe-li, October 30; Yam-mo-ni, November 4; and Ka-ba, December 31.

1 LOCATION: B MAGNOLIA

Leonard Bacon, 1802–1881. Prominent anti-slavery leader, minister of Center Church, and advocate of the Amistad Captives.

2 LOCATION: 52 CEDAR

Roger Sherman Baldwin, 1793–1863. Defense attorney for the Amistad Captives; later Governor of Connecticut and U.S. Senator.

3 LOCATION: 30 MAPLE

227 Grove Street, New Haven, Connecticut 06511

grovestreetcemetery.org ■ facebook.com/grovestreetcemetery

John Warner Barber, 1798–1885. Artist, engraver, and publisher. Author of A History of the Amistad Captives, 1840. (Stone in poor condition.)

4 LOCATION: 28 CEDAR

George E. Day, 1814–1905. Yale Divinity Professor who supervised the instruction of the Amistad Captives by Yale Divinity School students.

5 LOCATION: 4 MAGNOLIA

Josiah Willard Gibbs, Sr. 1790–1861.

Yale Professor of Sacred Literature and linguist who found the interpreters for the Amistad Captives.

6 LOCATION: 51 LOCUST

Nathaniel Jocelyn, 1796–1881. Artist who painted the portrait of Cinque in the New Haven Museum.

7 LOCATION: 5 CENTRAL

Colonel Stanton Pendleton, 1798–1858.

New Haven jailer and caretaker of the captives in Westville.

8 LOCATION: 34 LINDEN

Arthur Tappan, 1786–1865. Abolitionist and Founder of American Anti-Slavery society with William Lloyd Garrison. Brother of Lewis Tappan, Amistad Committee member. (Stone in poor condition.)

9 LOCATION: 3 LAUREL

